

THE FORUM

SERVING MARGATE AND COCONUT CREEK

THURSDAY, JUNE 5, 2008 • VOL. 13 No. 24 *

“LIFE”TIMES

Friendship Circle group picture.

enjoyed delicious pizza for lunch while awards and gifts were given out to the dedicated volunteers. Each volunteer was called up and awarded a certificate of appreciation and a gift for giving up their time throughout the year to help special children in our community. For more info about the program or to volunteer, call 954.970.9551, e-mail floridafriendshipcircle@gmail.com, or visit www.floridafriendshipcircle.com.

Friendship Circle Celebrates their End of Year Event

May 25 was a day of appreciation and friendly energy at Pump It Up in Margate for The Friendship Circle, an organization that reaches out to children with special needs. The program began with lots of excitement as the children and their volunteers were led into room A, which was filled with huge inflatable bounce houses and slides. The kids had a blast bouncing up and down, climbing, and jumping through the obstacle courses. Afterwards, everyone

1) Kayle Tate from Boca Raton hugging Fara Hoffman. 2) Volunteers receiving a gift and certificate award for their dedication to the Friendship Circle.

INFLATABLE FUN

JUMPING AROUND: Sydney Moed, 18 months, of Coral Springs attended the Friendship Circle's last meeting of the year at Pump it Up, an indoor inflatable playground in Margate. The Friendship Circle, a program that pairs special-needs children with teenage volunteers, is based at Chabad of Parkland. For information, visit www.chabadofparkland.com. Staff photo/Marta Mikulan

SEE MORE PHOTOS ON

